InspiraTexture™

THE CHOICE IS CLEAR

InspiraTexture™

InspiraTexture™ boasts a range of unique textured pattern glass, opening your space to lots of soft natural light while obscuring vision through the panel.

Wherever rooms demand privacy and warmth, InspiraTexture's™ low-cost range of designer patterned glass meets it with ease. Each option has its own pleasing look and feel as your decor requires, with varying levels of obscuration from subtle blurring to almost formless visuals.

Ideal for bathrooms, doors and partitions which need to be kept intimate but not gloomy, InspiraTexture™ options will be the perfect fit for any home or commercial setting. And thanks to its ease of production, it's readily available and remarkably affordable.

InspiraTexture™ offers a range of different textured pattern glass units that allow natural light to fill the room while providing privacy. With a range of exciting textures to choose from, there's a product to suit your aesthetic.

High Light Transmission

InspiraTexture™ scatters and diffuses light without blocking or absorbing it, allowing soft natural light to filter through the room. This creates a perfect calm mood in any space.

Choice of Privacy Levels

Different textures in the range will scatter light more or less intensely depending on the method used, resulting in different levels of privacy as needed.

Easy to Maintain

The range of options are all made for a high level of durability and consistency throughout, making them simple to clean and maintain.
